II MONITORING IZVEŠTAJ br. 58 O MEDIJSKOJ SCENI SRBIJE U NOVEMBRU 2014:

- Sloboda izražavanja – pretnje i pritisci na novinare i medije – šta sve ukazuje na to da je novouvedena APR-ova procedura (beleženje ko je sve pristupao arhivi dokumenata i ko je koje firme u arhivi pregledao) nedozvoljena, a po novinare i opasna; sudski postupci – zbog čega je postupak za naknadu štete po tužbi novinara Vladimira Ješića protiv ministra bez portfelja Velimira Ilića pokazatelj toga da Srbija ne zadovoljava jedan od indikatora Saveta Evrope za medije u demokratiji; zašto je ohrabrujuća presuda Višeg suda u Nišu, koji je ukinuo prvostepenu presudu kojom su bivši direktor Gradske toplane Milutin Ilić i njegovi saradnici Dobrivoje Stanimirović i Mija Janković oslobođeni optužbi da su pretili uredniku „Južnih vesti" Predragu Blagojeviću i ugrozili mu sigurnost;

- Implementacija postojećih zakona – Zakon o elektronskim medijima – analiza mera koje je Regulatorno telo za elektronske medije (REM) izreklo emiterima u ovom periodu, a u vezi sa zaštitom maloletnika u programskim sadržajima: mera upozorenja nacionalnoj TV Pink (zbog nedostatka zaštite identiteta i integriteta maloletnika, kao i zbog pogrešnog označavanja i vremena emitovanja tog programa); mera upozorenja regionalnom emiteru RTV Enigma, zbog nepoštovanja programskog elaborata; opomene nacionalnim televizijama Happy i Prva, zbog programskih sadržaja koji nisu podobni za maloletnike a emituju se u zaštićenom terminu; opomena TV Happy zbog nedozvoljenog načina reklamiranja elektronskih cigareta;
- Usvajanje novih zakona – autori konstatuju da u ovom periodu nije bilo aktivnosti u pogledu donošenja zakona relevantnih za medije;
- Rad nadležnih organa – obrađen je rad Poverenika za informacije od javnog značaja, Odbora za kulturu i informisanje Narodne skupštine, Ministarstva kulture i informisanja i SOKOJ-a, a posebno izdvajamo analizu sednice i zaključaka Odbora za kulturu i informisanje o slobodi medija, kao i analizu sva tri pravilnika za implementaciju Zakona o javnom informisanju i medijima, koje je donelo Ministarstvo kulture i informisanja;
- Proces digitalizacije – šta je u novembru 2014. obeležilo proces digitalizacije;
- Proces privatizacije medija – dokle se stiglo u postupku privatizacije medija nakon donošenja novih medijskih zakona;
- Zaključak Izveštaja – autori sumiraju Izveštaj i ukazuju na to šta su najvažnija dešavanja u medijskom sektoru u novembru 2014.

Pedeset osmi Monitoring Izveštaj uradio je stručni tim Pravnog odeljenja ANEM-a, advokatske kancelarije „Živković&Samardžić", u saradnji sa ANEM-om. Pročitajte ga u celosti ili u delovima, ovde.

II MONITORING REPORT No. 58 ON SERBIAN MEDIA SCENE IN NOVEMBER 2014:

- Freedom of expression – threats and pressures against journalists and the media – the facts indicating that the newly introduced procedure by the Serbian Business Registers Agency (APR) is illicit and dangerous for journalists (the procedure entails registering of every person accessing the Agency's online archive of documents and the companies the documents related to which the users review); court proceedings – the reasons why the procedure for the compensation of damages upon the appeal of journalist Vladimir Jesic against the minister without portfolio Velimir Ilic shows that Serbia does not meet one of the CoE indicators for media in democracy; the reasons why the verdict of the High Court in Nis is encouraging, which verdict revokes the one of the Basic Court in the same city, under which the now former Director of the Municipal Heating Plant Milutin Ilic and his associates Dobrivoje Stanimirovic and Mija Jankovic were acquitted of the charges of having threatened the editor of "Juzne vesti" Predrag Blagojevic, endangering his security;

- Implementation of existing laws – The Law on Electronic Media – the analysis of the measures concerning the protection of minors in programming content that the Regulatory Body for Electronic Media (REM) pronounced against broadcasters in November: a warning to the national TV Pink (for the lack of protection of identity and integrity of minors in a program and for erroneous classification marking and the time of the program broadcasting); a warning to the regional broadcaster RTV Enigma for failure to respect programming concept; two reprimands to the national televisions Happy and Prva - for programming content not suitable for minors broadcast in a protected time-slot, and an additional reprimand against TV Happy for illicit manner of advertising electronic cigarettes;
- Adoption of new laws – the authors ascertain that there were no activities in November with respect to adopting laws relevant for the media;
- Work of competent authorities – the Report analyzes the work of the Commissioner for Information of Public Importance and Personal Data Protection, the Culture and Information Committee of the Serbian Parliament, the Ministry of Culture and Information and SOKOJ (organization of music authors of Serbia). We emphasize the analysis of the session on media freedom of the Culture and Information Committee and the conclusions thereof, as well as the analysis of all the three rulebooks for the implementation of the Law on Public Information and Media, adopted by the Ministry of Culture and Information;
- Digitalization process – developments that marked digitalization process in November 2014;
- Media privatization process – the progress in the media privatization process after the adoption of new media laws;
- Conclusion of the Report – the authors summarize the Report and point to the key developments in the media sector in November 2014.
