PRAVNI MONITORING MEDIJSKE SCENE U SRBIJI

LEGAL MONITORING OF SERBIAN MEDIA SCENE

ANEM Monitoring Novosti 23 / ANEM Monitoring Newsletter 23

DVADESET TREĆI MONITORING IZVEŠTAJ NA SAJTU ANEMa!
(za jun 2011.)

U njemu, između ostalog, pročitajte:

- koliko su jaki politički pritisci na medije i kakva je sudska praksa kada je reč o odgovornostima medija i novinara, a kakva, kada je reč o napadima na njih;
- zašto je pitanje raspodele budžetskih sredstava namenjenih javnom informisanju od lokalnog značaja važno za medije i zašto Preporuke nadležnih ministarstava, nedavno upućene lokalnim samoupravama, zapravo ne nude nikakvu suštinsku promenu u ovoj oblasti, iako je to trebalo da bude smisao njihovog donošenja;
- kakva rešenja nudi Nacrt medijske strategije i zašto su ona važna za dalji razvoj medijskog sektora, a kako je u javnoj raspravi na njih reagovano i iz kojih razloga;
- zbog čega je završetak privatizacije i povlačenje države iz medijskog vlasništva bitan preduslov za rešavanje problema na medijskoj sceni, a zbog čega je ovakvo rešenje sadržano u Nacrtu medijske strategije, izazvalo najviše polemike u javnoj raspravi;
- zašto je transparentnost vlasništva značajna i za proces privatizacije medija u Srbiji;
- zašto nije bilo napretka u medijskom sektoru Srbije ni u ovom periodu.

Dvadeset treći Monitoring Izveštaj nudi mnogo više od ovoga. Saznajte šta, na ANEMovom web sajtu ili ovde.

Kakva su dešavanja obeležila medijsku scenu u julu i kako, moći ćete da pročitate u narednom, dvadeset četvrtom Monitoring Izveštaju, koji će biti dostupan na našem sajtu u avgustu 2011!

U rubrici Monitoring medijske scene na web sajtu ANEMa, nalaze se sve informacije o zbivanjima u medijskom sektoru Srbije u poslednjih 26 meseci! Naći ćete ih u dvadeset tri Monitoring Izveštaja, četiri Monitoring Publikacije i izveštajima sa naša četiri okrugla stola posvećena medijskoj situaciji u Srbiji. Očekujemo vaše komentare, pitanja i sugestije!

TWENTY-THIRD MONITORING REPORT ON ANEM WEBSITE!
(for June 2011)

In this issue of Report, you can read, among other things, about:

- how strong were the political pressures exerted on media, as well as what was the court practice relating to responsibilities of media and journalists and the one in cases of attacks on media;
- why is the issue of allocation of budget funds intended for public information of local importance significant for media and why the Recommendations of the competent ministries, recently forwarded to local self-governments, have not actually brought any essential change in this area, in spite of this being their purpose in the first place;
- what solutions have been offered in the Draft Media Strategy and why they are important for the future development of the Serbian media sector, as well as what were the reactions to them during the public debate and why;
- why the conclusion of the process of privatization and withdrawal of the state from media ownership is important prerequisite for solving problems on the media scene and why such solution, provided in the Draft Media Strategy, has caused the most controversy during the public debate;
- why the transparency of media ownership is also important for the process of privatization of media in Serbia;
- why there has been no improvement in the Serbian media sector in this period.

The Twenty-third Monitoring Report brings you much more. Find out more by reading the Report on ANEM website, or here.

To find out about developments that marked the media scene in July, read the following, Twenty-fourth Monitoring Report, available in August 2011 on our website!

All information on events and developments in the Serbian media sector in the last 26 months can be found in the section Monitoring of the Media Scene on ANEM website! They are presented in 23 Monitoring Reports, 4 Monitoring Publications and reports from our four round tables dedicated to the media situation in Serbia. We are waiting for your comments, questions and suggestions!
